

Out at Lunch

A small amount from you will make a significant contribution to the success of our film. In return for your support we can offer you exposure directly to your target market. Within the first few weeks of launching our online campaign we already have a thriving facebook group, well-subscribed mailing list and our regularly visited website.

We also have agreements in place with some of our premium sponsors whereby they will be given non-exclusive, one-off rights to screen the film. Currently these screenings will be taking place as part of LGBT history month and will involve Q and A sessions with ourselves and our supporters. We hope to arrange more of these screenings and would be happy to discuss this option with you.

If you are interested in pursuing this opportunity or have any further questions about Out at Lunch or LifeSliceFilms we would be delighted to hear from you.

We look forward to hearing from you,

Alisa Arnah and Emma Brogen
